

NOTICE OF GOOD FAITH ESTIMATE RIGHTS

Under the No Surprises Act, you have the right to receive a “Good Faith Estimate” explaining how much your medical care will cost if you do not have insurance or if you are choosing not to use your insurance for services.

- You have the right to receive a written estimate of expected charges before receiving scheduled services.
 - If you schedule services at least 3 business days in advance, you will receive your estimate within 1 business day.
 - If you schedule services at least 10 business days in advance, you will receive your estimate within 3 business days.
 - If you request an estimate without scheduling, you will receive it within 3 business days.
 - If you are billed at least $400 more than your Good Faith Estimate, you have the right to dispute the charges.
